BODY OF MRS.
WM. SHELTON

Was Interred in Winchester Cemetery Wednesday Afternoon.—Passes Quietly Away after Short Illness.

The body of Mrs. William Shelton was brought here at noon Wednesday, and was interred in the Winchester cemetery at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, with services by Rev. M. P. Lowry.

Mrs. Shelton, whose home was in Bourbon county, between Paris and Winchester, died at 9:30 Tuesday night at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, of pneumonia. She had been ill for several days, and although her condition was known to have been serious, her death was sudden and unexpected.

Mrs. Shelton is survived by her husband and four small children, the youngest being about nine months old.

Mr. Shelton is employed as a section superintendent on the L. & N. railroad.

FAMOUS LISLE WILL
CASE IS AFFIRMED

Decision is Affirmed By Court Of Appeals in Case Pending on Appeal From Clark County.

The case of Esther Couchman, etc., vs. the executors of Claiborne Lisle, which has for some months been pending on appeal from Clark county was on Tuesday afternoon affirmed by the Court of Appeals.

The opinion is by Judge Lassing and is said to be very elaborate, covering some forty printed pages. No case before the Clark Circuit Court has for years attracted such widespread interest, as what was generally called the "Lisle Will Case."

The suit was between Esther Duckworth Couchman, Ben Duckworth, Ernest Duckworth and E. C. Lisle against thirty-one defendants, all of whom were closely related by blood or marriage to the plaintiffs.

The amount involved in the controversy was perhaps $150,000, the estimated value of the estate of Claiborne Lisle, grandfather of the Duckworths and E. C. Lisle.

The will in question, which was prepared by Hon. J. F. Winn, provided that the bulk of the estate should go to Mrs. Zipporah Oliver, Mrs. Jesse Hodgkin and Thomas Lisle, children of the testator and a large portion to the children of Connie Lisle, of Bourbon county, while the Duckworths were given $500 each and the children of James D. Lisle $1,000 each, and to E. C. Lisle, nothing, as large advancements had been made to Hon. Marcus Lisle, father of E. C. Lisle.

The trial was had here before Judge Lewis Walker, of Garrard county, Judge Benton declining to sit in the case, and resulted in a victory for the plaintiffs from which the defendants at once appealed.

The plaintiffs were represented by Pendleton, Bush & Bush, and Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, while representing the defendants were Hon. J. M. Stevenson, Jas. F. Winn and F. H. Haggard, of this city, and Col. Robert Harding, of Danville.

The Appellate Court heard oral argument of the case the first week in December and elaborate briefs were filed by each side.

YOUNG PREACHER
MAY DIE SOON

Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson Will Probably Not Live to Feel The Extreme Penalty For Crime.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 24.—Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, the confessed murderer of Miss Avis Linnell, is believed to be dying, and may not live to feel the extreme penalty pronounced upon him by the Massachusetts Court. Sheriff Quinn is of the opinion that Richeson will not live to see the dawn of the week of May 19, the time set for his electrocution.

Richeson was visited Tuesday by five members of the City Council. The minister greeted the Councilmen with a faint smile and chatted with them in a hesitating way for 15 minutes. Aside from the Warden, attorneys and spiritual advisers, the City Councilmen were the first men to see Richeson since he attempted to injure himself in his cell several weeks ago.

The visitors were shocked at the prisoner's appearance, and several of them declared that they did not believe he would live a month.

URGES CANDIDACY
OF COL. ROOSEVELT

Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, Sends Telegram to Ex-President, Requesting Him to Make Announcement.

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 24.—Governor Stubbs Tuesday made public a telegram sent to Roosevelt Monday, urging him to make a statement at once as to whether he would be a candidate for President or permit his name to go before the Republican National Convention. The Governor has not received a reply. The telegram read:

"The demand for your candidacy is becoming more urgent daily, and in Kansas is overwhelming and among all classes of the people. The meeting of committees and the calling of caucuses and primaries to select delegates to Congressional and State conventions, which in turn will select delegates to the Republican National Convention are near at hand.

"Your friends throughout the Middle West are eagerly waiting to hear you say that you will accept the nomination for President if it comes to you as a genuine demand from the people without your seeking it or taking any action yourself to secure the place. I believe you owe it to the American people to make a public statement concerning this matter and am writing you because of the lateness of the day and on behalf of a vast majority of the Republicans of Kansas and urge you to give us this definite statement by wire."

PROMINENT WOMAN
OF WOODFORD COUNTY

Is Burned to Death at the Home of Her Niece, Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, in Versailles.

Versailles, Ky., Jan. 24.—Mrs. W. F. Fuller, one of the most prominent women in Woodford county, was burned to death at the home of her niece, Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, on Montgomery avenue, Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Fuller, it is thought, got too close to the fire and her clothes caught fire. One of the servants heard her screams and rushed into her room, finding her lying on a bed in an unconscious condition. When the servant went into the room the fire had early consumed the bed. Her body was burned to a crisp in some places.

Several physicians were summoned but their efforts to save her life were futile, as she passed away about two hours after she received her injuries. The fire department was called out but the neighbors had extinguished the flames in the house before the fire department arrived.

Mrs. Fuller is survived by two nieces, Mrs. McBride and Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, with whom she had made her home up to the time of her death.

WOMAN'S PLEA
FOR HUSBAND

Mrs. Silas Phelps Tells of How She And Six Children Pray Each Night.

Monroe Bridge, Mass., Jan. 24.—Mrs. Silas Phelps, wife of the man who is sentenced to die this week for the murder of a Deputy Sheriff, sent a pitiful plea to Governor Foss and the Council which will Wednesday consider another petition to save Phelps from the chair.

"I am sick, and am not strong enough to undertake the journey with my six children," she wrote in explanation of her failure to make a personal plea. "I want to say that there have been misstatements made concerning Silas," she continued. "We were always happy until this trouble came. The stories that he abused me are all lies."

"I pray to God every night, and our six children kneel beside me and pray that the father shall not have to die in that awful chair."

"Whatever you do to Silas, spare his life for our sakes."

Mrs. Phelps and her children live in a lonely cottage on Monroe Mountain, a mile from the nearest neighbor. The town of Monroe and neighbors care for the family. The authorities allow Mrs. Phelps $2 a week and some flour, and neighbors supply their other wants, such as clothing for the children, etc.

Phelps shot and killed Deputy Sheriff E. P. Haskins, who had gone to his home to arrest him for some minor offense. Phelps maintains that in shooting the man he was so in defense of his home.

YOUNG AVIATOR
DROPS TO DEATH

"Too Daring" Attempt Made by Rutherford Page, 24 Years Old, Results in His Death.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 23.—Rutherford Page, 24 years of age, a graduate of Yale and a member of a wealthy New York family, who got an aviators' license last Saturday, flew in his professional capacity Monday to his death on Dominguez Field, when at 4:10 o'clock he jumped from a Curtiss biplane, over which he had lost control, and dropped 50 feet to the ground.

The aeroplane was wrecked. It was a tragedy very different from that which, in jocular terms, Page had pictured as his fate. About two weeks ago, when he was a student in the Curtiss school at North Island, near San Diego, the young man said: "If I am killed I want to be in full view of the grand stand packed with people after I have descended from a flight with my baregraph showing I have broken the world's altitude record."

It is doubtful if more than a few hundred saw the final fraction of his flight. Once more, as in the long list of tragedies of the air, the verdict, "too daring" may be written across the somber scroll. Page's earlier performances promised him a head line as star of the meet.

HOUSE DAMAGED
AT MT. STERLING

Fire Originates in Cottage Belonging to Gilbert Triplett From Careless Plying With Matches.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Jan. 24.—Late Monday evening the handsome frame cottage belonging to Gilbert Triplett, on Holt avenue, this city, was damaged by fire and the loss on the building and contents will reach from $700 to $1,000, covered by insurance in Hoffman's Agency. It is believed that the fire originated by the careless handling of matches in the hands of a little girl who had been playing with them, leaving some of the matches under a gas stove which was burning, the heat causing them to ignite and starting the blaze.

Most of the damage to the furniture and household goods was caused by smoke, and little if any water was thrown, the fire being extinguished by use of chemicals. The horse enroute to the fire with the hose wagon, gave out, proving conclusively that one animal is not enough to haul the heavy wagon over the streets of the city to the outskirts.

BRYAN SIDES
WITH WILSON

In His Break With Colonel George Harvey And Colonel Henry Watterson, Justifying Action of Governor.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 24.—William Jennings Bryan takes the side of Governor Woodrow Wilson in his break with Colonel George Harvey and Colonel Henry Watterson, justifying the action of the New Jersey Governor in requesting that his name be withdrawn from the columns of Harper's Weekly. In a letter sent from the East, made public Tuesday night, Mr. Bryan says: "The recent break between Governor Wilson and Colonel Harvey illustrates the impossibility of co-operation between the men who look at public questions from different points of view.

"Colonel Harvey became a supporter of Mr. Wilson when he was selected as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, and he continued his support when Governor Wilson began to be discussed as a candidate for the Presidency.

"Of course, it is absurd for Colonel Harvey's friends to talk about his 'bringing Governor Wilson out.' No man of paper could have made Governor Wilson available as a candidate if he, himself, had not attracted attention for Harvey to have prevented a discussion of Governor Wilson's availability."

SISTER OF GENERAL
JOHN B. CASTLEMAN

Mrs. Fannie C. Eastin Passes Away on Board Steamer Enroute From France to New York.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—The body of Mrs. Fannie C. Eastin, sister of Gen. John B. Castleman and widow of Judge George B. Eastin, a former member of the Court of Appeals, will be brought to Louisville for burial. Her death occurred abroad the steamship La Savoie enroute from France to New York early Sunday morning, and resulted from a stroke of apoplexy while she was alone in her stateroom. News of her death was received here in a telegram, and came as a shock to her relatives and friends.

A year ago Mrs. Eastin went abroad in search of health. For a time she improved steadily. Ten days ago she suffered a relapse and decided to return to America at once. Against the advice of those attending her she insisted upon taking the first vessel crossing the Atlantic. A week ago she boarded the ocean liner at Havre. She was weak and suffering from paralysis of the lower limbs. Friday she filed a wireless message to her niece, Mrs. Julia W. C. Carroll, 59 West Forty-Sixth street, New York, requesting her to meet her when the ship reached port.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll were on hand when the ship anchored Monday, and were shocked when informed of Mrs. Eastin's death. She had been found lifeless by the stewardess when she called to attend her.

TEACHER'S PENSION
BILL IS ENDORSED

By Lexington Teachers' Club, With About Fifty Teachers And Principals in Attendance.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 24.—The Lexington Teachers' Club with about fifty teachers and principals of the city schools in attendance, met Tuesday afternoon and unanimously endorsed the "Teacher's Pension Bill" which is to be introduced in the present session of the Legislature, and which will probably come up in the Lower House Thursday.

The bill provides for a pension fund, from which pensions are to be issued to all teachers who have been in active service for a period of thirty years, and also contains a sick benefit proviso. The fund will be formed by a tax levied on the teachers of from $10 to $20 per year, depending on the teacher's salary, and also from a tax of one half of one per cent on all taxable property in the city limits. The first year's fund would be approximately $3,000, and the bill provides for the investment of this amount in some paying proposition.

According to the provision of the bill, that was read at the meeting Tuesday, all teachers who have been in active service for thirty years will be retired and will receive a pension of $600 a year, or if the teacher desires to retire after twenty-five years of service, he or she may receive a pension of $500 per year.

COL. EDMONSON.

Col. Milton Brown Edmonson, a native of this county, and for the last thirty years a citizen in the state of Illinois, has been in Winchester visiting his relatives and friends for the last week. He is the some relic-like, jolly soul as of old, and is a candidate for the State Senate in the 36th Senatorial District of Illinois. If the Colonel were a candidate here in his native county, the man who beat him would know he had been in a race.

FISH AND GAME LAW.

Mr. Ben Watt, formerly an officeholder in Frankfort, sketches the provision of the Oklahoma fish and game law, which he suggests that Kentucky should enact.

Mr. Watt says in the course of his communication:

"While our law has been in operation not more than three years, we now have in the treasury, from the sales of licenses alone, more than $100,000, which will be used in establishing fish hatcheries, game propagation farms, etc. The next Legislature will provide for these, making one of each on the east side and one of each on the west side of the state.
By the time the next Legislature meets, which be January of next year, there will be in the State treasury something more than $150,000, which will allow in the neighborhood of $40,000 for each hatchery and the same amount for each propagation farm.

"You will gather from this that there is no tax on the people in general, but that this fund is entirely provided by the men who hunt and fish and that the whole amount is to be eventually expended in providing for their fish and game for all time to come.

"The state has already shipped many hundreds of dozens of pheasant eggs in the state; these have been distributed to farmers who would sign an affidavit to hatch them out, take good care of them and turn them out. These birds have done well in Oklahoma, and, as they are protected for five years, we hope to have an abundance of them in the next few years."

In these days of kiting prices the conservation of game is of importance to farmers and to dwellers in cities as well because of the economic value of a good game supply. During the hunting season there are a good many farmers and a good many wage earners from towns who have days of leisure that may be well and healthfully spent in hunting. Where fish are plentiful a country boy who could not earn a half dollar a day at work may catch a fine string of fish for the family larder and enjoy fine sport catching them. Fish and game should be protected and in Kentucky there has been very little actual protection. The Oklahoma law seems to be a good one. At any rate it is more progressive than the Kentucky law. And this Legislature would do well to consider it, among others, and enact the best.

SENATOR BRISTOW TELLS

WHAT A PROGRESSIVE IS.

A Progressive is one who believes that the laws of the country should be made to apply to present conditions.

That our political institutions should be so changed as to meet the requirements of modern times.

That the great business interests which have been the outgrowth of modern conditions should be restrained in their efforts to selfishly control the affairs of business as well as politics.

In short, one who believes that when the old system fails to correct modern evils the old system ought to be changed.

DOINGS AT FRANKFORT.

This is the fourth week of the session of the Legislature and things are beginning to hum in Frankfort.

The various committees to which important measures have been referred are having daily and nightly sessions which are attended and watched by parties interested or those representing the interests affected by the proposed legislation.

The House has passed the County Unit Extension Bill, but it has run on a nest of snags in the Senate.
When the bill was reached in the Senate Monday its enemies, by a vote of 20 to 16, passed it over till Thursday when it will be either passed or killed, and no man can tell which will be its fate.

Our Senator, Hon. C. M. Thomas, is one of its champions, who insists eloquently that the pledges of the Democratic platform should be kept.
Several of the hold over Senators, claiming that they are not bound by the platform, and asserting their opinions against that of the Court of Appeals, as to the constitutionality of the law, are professing to oppose the bill on constitutional grounds.

There are only six Republicans in the Senate and two of these voted for the bill Monday and four voted to postpone action till Thursday.
Hon. W. H. Welch, the Republican Senator from Madison, Estill, Lee and Powell, was one of the four and the impression at Frankfort is that he will continue to vote wet.

Senator Tunis, of Lexington, cast a dry vote Monday and will continue to vote that way.

The people everywhere are praying, and praying, that something may be done that will take this question out of politics. Both political parties thought the way to do that was to extend the County Unit law to all the counties, but some of the Senators of both parties seem to object to that method. It may be that it is profitable to some to keep the question an agitated political one.

The Congressional Redistricting Committee had a meeting Tuesday and was addressed by Congressmen Langley and Fields and others.

The sentiment seems to be that the Eleventh district is too large, and that the way to remedy that is for some of the Tenth district counties to go to the Ninth and others to the Eighth and possibly some to the Seventh and let some of the Eleventh district counties be placed in the Tenth.

Mr. Fields suggested that Morgan, Elliott, Menifee and Wolfe be placed in the Ninth. Mr. Langley preferred that the Tenth be let alone, but of course shed no tears over the suggestion that four of the reliable Democratic counties be taken out of his district.

Some of the Democratic representatives from Clark county, while not asking that any change be made in the Tenth district, suggested that if the district was to be dismembered and divided out, and several of the other Democratic counties were to be taken out of the Tenth, that Clark, rather than be left simply as a tail to Mr. Langley's kite, preferred to be placed with Powell in the Eighth district. Just what will be done on this question no man can foretell, for when a redistricting problem is reached all sorts of troubles begin.

Clark would prefer to take her chances in the Tenth district as it is now constituted. We have business and commercial ties with most of the counties and our banks and mechanics would lose by a severance of those ties. When our new railroad is built to Irvine and Beattyville the business of Estill and Lee counties will be turned this way rather than down the L. & A.

These things ought to be considered, and if any changes are to be made in the Congressional district it would be to the interests of our people, both politically and commercially, for Powell, Estill, Lee and Wolfe to go with Clark wherever the Legislature may place Clark.

All the insurance men of the state were in Frankfort Tuesday watching insurance legislation and quite a bunch of C. & O. railway people were there for some purpose. The tip is out at Frankfort that Maurice Galvin, of Covington, will this week get the Republican place on the Board of Control, now held by Col. Albert Scott, of Louisville. Mr. Galvin is a strong lawyer and has just resigned as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Covington district. He was supposed to be anti-Taft and anti-Bradley which made his re-appointment to the Collector's position impossible. The position Mr. Galvin gets at Frankfort is the one for which Mr. A. H. Sympton was strongly endorsed.

There is a strong feeling at Frankfort against Congressman Cantrill and his snap-primary in the Ashland district and an effort is being made to induce Mr. Harry Schoberth, of Versailles, to make the race against him. Although defeated for the Speakership, Mr. Schoberth is one of the most popular members of the Legislature and has a clean record, and if he enters the race against Cantrill, the contest will be a warm one, but the betting ones will place their money on Cantrill.

There are some things doing at Frankfort that won't yet bear publishing.

Have your friends to meet you while down town at the Soda Parlor.

CASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently But Thoroughly Cleanse And

Regulate Your Stomach, Liver And

Bowels While You Sleep

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases, that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Casca-ret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

RED CROSS DAIRY FARM

Dr. M. S. Browne Has Fifty Head of Fine Cattle Shipped Here And Fine Machinery Installed.

Since the opening of 1912 Dr. M.
S. Browne has bought about fifty head of cattle; Jerseys, Holsteins and grades, and has been receiving, by rail, from the great dairy regions of the Midwest, machinery, mills, shredder, ensilage cutter, engines, separators and appliances necessary to the complete equipment of a modern, up-to-date dairy plant; capable of furnishing "certified milk" products, and is now about ready to have such a dairy put in operation at the old Karsner homestead, near the city, and on the Colby pike, on his 250 acre farm, known as "The Griggsby-Karsner Place."

None but young, vigorous and healthy, tuberculin-tested cattle, capable of producing the highest grade of milk, will be permitted on this farm; which, for the future, is to be devoted to the production of high-class milk, for the supply of Winchester's milk drinkers. The owner has the promise of the aid of Dr.
Robt. Graham, head of Veterinary Science and Serum production at State College, and was aided by Dr.
E. S. Good, head of Animal Husbandry, especially in selecting registered Holsteins.

Mr. Wm. Abney, an active young business man of large experience, has leased the above place for a term of years, and will run it in conjunction with the owner. For the present, his brother, Mr. Chas.
Abney, a practical sanitary dairy man, aided by his wife, will have the management, and invites all prospective patrons, as well as all persons interested in securing a pure milk supply for Winchester, to visit and inspect the premises, cows, stables, water supply, feed, grazing lots, milk room, etc., which will be open to the public after 6 a. m. Monday, January 15. Also, after this hour all orders for cream, whole milk and buttermilk given over Home phone 899-x, will receive prompt attention as they shall be ready to open up the new
"Red-Cross Dairy Farm" for business by that day.

WOMAN AND SON CHARGED WITH MURDER

Arested in London, Ky., on Charge of Causing Death of Boy's Step-father.

London, Ky., Jan. 23.—Henry C. Jordi, a prosperous Swiss farmer, and his mother, Mrs. Alice Jordi, aged 40 years, were arrested at their home, three miles west of here, Monday on a warrant sworn out by County Attorney H. J. Johnson, charging them with the murder of Albert Jordi, who was found dead in an old well near the Jordi home last Wednesday. Mrs. Jordi is the widow and Henry Jordi the stepson.

It is said by the two charged with the crime that Jordi fell into the well and drowned.

It was the opinion of physicians, who examined the body, that death was not produced by drowning.

GEMS OF HER COLLECTION

French Woman Especially Treasured Four Post Cards That Showed Scenes in America.

"Wait just a moment." The girl in lavender linen stopped her friend before the post card stand on the curbstone, near Forty-second street and Broadway, and began a rapid search through highly colored "souvenirs of New York." She had lived in New York all her life and most of her acquaintances lived here, too, and her companion marveled.

"I want a really good one," she was saying to the post card vendor, "one that is rather magnificent and yet the way things really look. Something along Broadway, or you might try the Metropolitan tower."

She turned to her friend with an explanation. "They are for a woman I met in Paris this summer," she said. "She was charming, and we talked about Paris."

"But one day she told me she was going to show me some of her treasures. And what do you think they were?"

"Four postal cards, of America! And she gloated over them. There was one of Boston Common, with the corner of Boylston and Tremont streets sticking up in the back. And there was one of Broad and Chestnut streets in Philadelphia, and one of Michigan drive in Chicago. But the one she treasured most was the New York skyline."

"Some day," she said, "I shall see that. That is the magnificence of life!" "And so," finished the girl in lavender linen, "I'm going to send her some more. Personally, I prefer the Place de la Concorde, or the view of the Ile de la Cite from the Pont des Arts. But if a Frenchwoman is really crazy about New York!"

CUPID'S DOMAIN IN BERLIN

Marriage Registry Office in That City Is Decorated With Symbols of Wedlock.

The marriage registry office is in all countries usually a bare and unromantic scene, with its undecorated walls, superannuated green baize covered table and general air of stuffiness and parchment. Modern Berlin has introduced a new fashion by setting the stage, so to speak, in harmony with the performance—or is it drama?—to be enacted thereon.

At the very door the bridegroom's hand grasps a dove-shaped handle to procure him and his blushing companion admittance and in the dove's bill hang two intertwining rings. The small passage leading to the office contains a smiling statue of Amor with his bow and arrows, while on all sides, both in the passage and the office, is the eye met by the symbols of wedlock: rings, roses, hearts, locked hands and children's heads.

Even the ornaments of the lamps and stove are designed in the same spirit, while on one of the office walls is a large bronze tablet with verses appropriate to the occasion. In such surroundings, remarks a writer in one of the papers, it must be almost a pleasure to get married.—European Letter to the New York Sun.

More Man on Woman.

Sometimes it is funny to observe a woman who steps into a business office where she has never been before. She comes in hesitatingly, looks all around, notes the calendars on the wall, bites her lip, and then wants to know where she is. But, unlike on a trolley car, she can't step off backwards.

A woman who is traveling likes to carry a suitcase, a steamer trunk and a handbag. When she gets at the end of the journey she doesn't know what to do with the steamer trunk, and almost always nearly loses her handbag.

Whenever you see a woman who has the prettiest ankles in the world, she wonders, generally, why she isn't pretty everywhere else. She probably is, but everybody doesn't know it.

No woman feels at her level best until she gets her collar off and her sleeves rolled up, but she wouldn't have the next door neighbor know it on her life. Also, she likes the old kimono, and the older it is the better. —Boston Herald.

Many-Sided Scientist.

Dr. Leland O. Howard, who coined the term, "typhoid fly," and aroused universal interest in the crusade against these dangerous pests, holds the distinction of being the only American on the international agricultural committee. He is an expert on insects in the department of agriculture, and it is largely due to his scientific investigations that the world became acquainted with the devastating boll weevil and the gipsy moth. In leading scientific societies of the world he is an honored member, but he can do other things besides investigate bugs. He likes golf, plays a rattling game of billiards, is learned in music, and fairly devours books. In politics he would be termed a "good mixer," having the rare ability to fraternize with all classes.

Natural History.

"Why sir," said Mr. Dustin Stax, "do you call me an amphibian?" "I refer to your method of capitalization." "But I have developed the resources of the land." "Yes. But when you get tired of the land you take to water."

Mr. Dallas Webb, wife and little son, of Winchester, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Thomas, of this place.

T. B. Rupard and Everett Chaney bought of T. A. Rupard some shoats, weight about 40 pounds, at 5 cents per pound.

Miss Corde Smith, of near Mt. Sterling, is visiting relatives at this place.

Miss Gertrude Parido has returned home, after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Ethan Jones, of Pine Grove.
